

Testimonials from 2014 DyNet- Fairmont event held April 2, 2014

Do you have a success story from DyNet?

"We have now made contact and started a conversation with the FBI contract offices at the CJIS center thanks to the dynet conference. More details coming!"

WV Business engaging in federal contracting

"Not to date, however, I believe the potential for future new work between my agency and small business in the community is likely."

WV Government Agency

"I found two possible subcontractors and I consider finding even one viable subcontractor to make an event a success. We also benefited by being able to talk to the government agencies."

PA Large Prime Contractor

"Met several good firms of which I had not heard. A good mix of industry was present."

PA Business engaging in federal contracting

"Meeting the right contact at HP for participating in bidding to the FBI will be good long term."
